

Name: _____

Grade: _____

Date: _____

I Think I Know You...

1. Write four questions that you would like to ask to an adult. These can be related to the activities he does, what he loves, his story, his travels, his first love, his childhood games, etc.

Choose whom you are going to talk to, imagine and write the answers you think he will give you. Then, talk to him, ask the questions and write his answers.

◆ Interviewee name: _____

◆ Relationship (dad, mom, uncle, grandmother, etc.): _____

Question	Possible answer	Real answer
1.
2.
3.
4.

2. Compare the answers given by the interviewee with the ones you guessed. Tell him the answer that surprised you the most and what you thought beforehand.

3. Imagine and draw what you would play together if you were both children at the same time.

